

RABBITING

Meaning: Rabbiting refers to the act of talking incessantly or chatteringly, often about trivial or unimportant topics.

1. The children were rabbiting on about their adventures in the park.
2. After hours of rabbiting about trivial matters, they finally got to the point.
3. I could hardly concentrate while my friends were rabbiting endlessly in the background.
4. Her rabbiting had a way of making even the dullest topics seem interesting.
5. In the cozy café, the group was rabbiting over steaming cups of coffee, lost in conversation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rabbiting>