

RABIDLY

Meaning: RABIDLY: in an extreme, fanatical, or fervent manner.

1. He argued rabidly about the importance of environmental conservation.
2. The fans cheered rabidly as their team scored the winning goal.
3. She pursued her passion for painting rabidly, dedicating every spare moment to her craft.
4. The debate became rabidly contentious, with both sides unwilling to compromise.
5. He collected rare coins rabidly, often spending hours scouring markets and auctions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rabidly>