

RABIDNESS

Meaning: Rabidness refers to an extreme and intense enthusiasm or fervor, often to the point of being irrational or excessive.

1. The rabidness of his obsession with the project left his colleagues feeling overwhelmed.
2. During the debate, her rabidness toward the opposing viewpoint shocked even her supporters.
3. The rabidness of the crowd at the concert created an electrifying atmosphere.
4. Despite the rabidness of the fans, the team managed to stay focused on their game plan.
5. His rabidness for the cause often led him to alienate potential allies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rabidness>