

RACEMIFORM

Meaning: RACEMIFORM (adjective): resembling a raceme, particularly in the arrangement of flowers or inflorescences along a central stem.

1. The racemiform structure of the plant's flowers attracted numerous pollinators.
2. In botanical studies, racemiform inflorescences are often observed in various species.
3. The scientist noted the racemiform arrangement of the seeds along the stem.
4. Racemiform growth patterns can indicate specific genetic traits in flowering plants.
5. During her research, she focused on the ecological significance of racemiform plant formations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/racemiform>