

RADIATIVE

Meaning: RADIATIVE: relating to the transfer of energy in the form of radiation, particularly heat or electromagnetic waves.

1. The radiative heat transfer from the sun is essential for maintaining the Earth's climate.
2. Scientists studied the radiative properties of various materials to improve energy efficiency.
3. Radiative processes play a crucial role in the formation of stars and galaxies in the universe.
4. The satellite was designed to measure the radiative emissions from the Earth's surface.
5. Understanding radiative cooling mechanisms can lead to advancements in sustainable building designs.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/radiative>