

RADICIFORM

Meaning: Radiciform refers to a structure that resembles or is shaped like a root, particularly in relation to plants.

1. The radiciform structure of the plant allowed it to anchor firmly in the soil.
2. In botany, the term radiciform describes roots that resemble or are shaped like a root.
3. The radiciform characteristics of the species help it adapt to various environmental conditions.
4. Herbalists often study radiciform plants for their medicinal properties and resilience.
5. Understanding radiciform growth patterns can lead to better agricultural practices and crop yields.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/radiciform>