

RADIOTELEPHONE

Meaning: A radiotelephone is a device that enables voice communication over long distances using radio waves.

1. The sailor used a radiotelephone to communicate with the coast guard during the storm.
2. In the remote village, the only source of long-distance communication was a radiotelephone installed in the community center.
3. During the emergency drill, participants practiced using the radiotelephone to report their locations.
4. The radiotelephone system allowed fishermen to stay in touch while out at sea, ensuring their safety.
5. With advancements in technology, many people have replaced their old radiotelephone with modern satellite phones.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/radiotelephone>