

RAFTER

Meaning: A rafter is a structural beam that supports the roof of a building, typically sloping from the ridge to the wall.

1. The carpenter carefully measured the length of the rafter before cutting it to size.
2. After the storm, several rafters in the old barn were damaged and needed replacing.
3. She admired the exposed rafters in the living room, which gave the space a rustic charm.
4. During the renovation, they discovered that some of the rafters were rotting and required reinforcement.
5. The architect designed the house with tall ceilings and open rafters to create an airy feel.
6. The carpenter carefully measured the length of the rafter before cutting it.
7. During the storm, a large rafter from the roof came crashing down onto the porch.
8. The old barn's rafters were made of sturdy oak, standing strong against the test of time.
9. She admired the intricate design of the exposed rafters in the newly renovated loft.
10. The architect included a skylight between the rafters to bring more natural light into the room.
11. The carpenter carefully measured the rafter to ensure it would fit perfectly in the roof structure.
12. As the storm approached, he made sure to inspect the rafters for any signs of damage.
13. They decided to expose the wooden rafters in the living room to add a rustic charm to the space.
14. During the renovation, the old rafters were replaced with stronger materials to support the new design.
15. She marveled at the intricate patterns formed by the rafters in the historic barn's ceiling.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rafter>