

RAGPICKER

Meaning: A ragpicker is a person who collects and sorts through discarded materials, often from refuse or debris, to find items of value for resale.

1. The ragpicker sifted through the debris in search of anything valuable.
2. In the bustling streets, the ragpicker collected discarded items to sell for a meager profit.
3. Every day, the ragpicker would roam the alleys, showcasing a keen eye for hidden treasures.
4. Despite his difficult circumstances, the ragpicker maintained a cheerful disposition while working.
5. The community often overlooked the ragpicker, unaware of the stories he could tell about their discarded belongings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ragpicker>