

RAILER

Meaning: RAILER: A person who enthusiastically discusses or critiques trains and railways.

1. The railer shouted across the platform, trying to get the attention of his friend.
2. As a railer, she always had something to say about the latest train schedules.
3. The comedian was known for being a railer, often poking fun at the absurdities of daily life.
4. He felt like a railer when he couldn't hold back his laughter during the serious meeting.
5. In the debate, he emerged as a railer, challenging every point with sharp wit and humor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/railer>