

RAILINGLY

Meaning: RAILINGLY: In a manner characterized by loud, vehement, or passionate expression of strong emotions or complaints.

1. She expressed her frustrations railingly, making it clear she wouldn't back down.
2. The critics responded railingly to the announcement, voicing their displeasure loudly and passionately.
3. His railingly delivered speech captivated the audience, drawing them into his fervent arguments.
4. They debated railingly over the controversial issue, each side unwilling to concede an inch.
5. The politician's railingly worded remarks sparked outrage among his opponents and supporters alike.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/railingly>