

RAIN-TIGHT

Meaning: Rain-tight: designed to be impervious to rain, preventing water from entering and keeping the interior dry.

1. The new tent is designed to be rain-tight, ensuring we stay dry during our camping trip.
2. She purchased a rain-tight jacket to keep herself warm and dry on her hike.
3. The builders ensured that the roof was completely rain-tight to prevent any leaks.
4. His rain-tight gear proved invaluable during the unexpected downpour.
5. They tested the rain-tight seal on the windows to guarantee no water would leak inside.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rain-tight>