

RAINDROP

Meaning: A raindrop is a small, individual drop of water that falls from the sky as precipitation.

1. The sound of a single raindrop hitting the roof was surprisingly calming.
2. She watched as each raindrop raced down the windowpane, creating tiny rivers of water.
3. A raindrop landed gently on the petals of the flower, making them glisten in the sunlight.
4. He caught a raindrop on his tongue, savoring the fresh taste of nature's gift.
5. The children squealed with delight as a sudden shower filled the air with dancing raindrops.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/raindrop>