

RAIVEL

Meaning: 'Raivel' means to move or flow in a way that is expressive or turbulent, often evoking strong emotions or sensations.

1. The artist's newest painting seemed to raivel with emotion, capturing the viewer's attention instantly.
2. As the storm approached, the winds began to raivel through the trees, creating an eerie soundscape.
3. During the debate, his voice began to raivel, revealing his frustration with the opposing arguments.
4. The leaves on the ground started to raivel as the playful breeze danced around them.
5. In her excitement, she began to raivel about her plans for the upcoming trip, spreading her enthusiasm to everyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/raivel>