

RAKISH

Meaning: Rakish: having a dashing, stylish, or carefree appearance that is often associated with charm and attractiveness.

1. His rakish charm and easy smile made him the center of attention at every party.
2. She wore a rakish hat tilted jauntily to one side, drawing admiring glances from passersby.
3. The rakish demeanor of the young man hinted at a life filled with adventure and spontaneity.
4. With his rakish style and confident stride, he looked every bit the dashing hero of a classic novel.
5. Despite his rakish appearance, he had a surprisingly thoughtful nature that endeared him to his friends.
6. The rakish young man strolled confidently into the gala, turning heads with his stylish attire.
7. Her rakish charm captivated everyone at the party, making her the center of attention.
8. He wore a rakish grin that suggested he was up to mischief, enticing his friends to join in.
9. With his rakish haircut and unbuttoned blazer, he exuded an effortless cool that was hard to resist.
10. The actor's rakish persona in the film made him an instant heartthrob among the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rakish>