

RALLIER

Meaning: Rallier: a person who gathers or inspires others to come together for a common purpose or cause.

1. The charismatic speaker managed to rallier the crowd with his passionate message.
2. In the face of adversity, she became the rallier for her community, uniting everyone for a common cause.
3. His ability to rallier support from diverse groups showcased his exceptional leadership skills.
4. At the festival, the main act served as a rallier, bringing together fans from all walks of life.
5. Despite the challenges, her determination as a rallier inspired many to join the movement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rallier>