

RALLINE

Meaning: Ralline refers to a distinctive line or element in art or literature that captures attention and enhances engagement.

1. The artist's use of color and texture in the painting created a ralline that drew viewers in.
2. During the lecture, the professor emphasized the importance of understanding the ralline in literary analysis.
3. The architect's design featured a unique ralline that set the building apart from its surroundings.
4. As the debate continued, the ralline of argument shifted from economic to social implications.
5. In the dance performance, the ralline of movement captivated the audience, creating a sense of rhythm and flow.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ralline>