

RAMPLER

Meaning: A rampler is a device or element that disrupts or hinders efficiency or focus in a system or process.

1. The rampler in the machine caused a significant drop in efficiency.
2. Her voice served as a rampler, drawing attention to the important details in her presentation.
3. The artist's latest work was a rampler of emotions, resonating deeply with the audience.
4. In the meeting, his rampler ideas sparked a lively discussion among colleagues.
5. The documentary served as a rampler, highlighting the urgent need for environmental reform.
6. The old RAMPLER in the workshop had seen better days, yet it still performed admirably.
7. After years of research and development, the team finally unveiled their innovative RAMPLER technology to the public.
8. Engineers praised the RAMPLER for its efficiency and reliability under various operating conditions.
9. The RAMPLER was essential for the project, enabling them to complete tasks that were previously deemed impossible.
10. As the sun set, the RAMPLER's lights flickered to life, illuminating the darkened factory floor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rampler>