

RANCHERO

Meaning: Ranchero refers to a person, typically in the southwestern United States or Mexico, who is involved in ranching or farming, often characterized by a traditional lifestyle and attire.

1. The ranchero prepared a traditional feast to celebrate the harvest.
2. With his wide-brimmed hat and boots, the ranchero embodied the spirit of the West.
3. As the sun set over the horizon, the ranchero rode his horse across the expansive landscape.
4. The music of the ranchero filled the air, bringing friends and family together for a joyful evening.
5. She dreamed of life as a ranchero, tending to her cattle under the open sky.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ranchero>