

RANCHO

Meaning: Rancho: a large farm or ranch, especially in the western United States or Mexico, often associated with livestock and agricultural activities.

1. The family spent their weekends at the rancho, enjoying the tranquility of nature.
2. After inheriting the rancho from their grandparents, they decided to restore it to its former glory.
3. The rancho was known for its delicious produce and friendly atmosphere, attracting visitors from all around.
4. She dreamed of owning a rancho where she could raise horses and live off the land.
5. Every summer, the children would help out on the rancho, learning the value of hard work and responsibility.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rancho>