

RANCOR

Meaning: Rancor is a noun that refers to a deep-seated, bitter resentment or ill will, often stemming from past grievances.

1. The rancor between the two rivals was evident during the heated debate.
2. Despite their long friendship, a lingering rancor began to surface after the betrayal.
3. She spoke of her past grievances with a rancor that surprised her friends.
4. The community's rancor towards the new policies led to widespread protests.
5. He could not shake off the rancor that had built up over years of unfair treatment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rancor>