

RANCOROUS

Meaning: RANCOROUS: characterized by deep-seated resentment or bitterness, often resulting in hostility or animosity.

1. Their rancorous debate left a bitter divide in the community.
2. Despite their rancorous past, they managed to work together for the common good.
3. The rancorous tone of the letter shocked everyone who read it.
4. He couldn't shake the rancorous feelings he held towards his former colleague.
5. The rancorous atmosphere in the room made it clear that reconciliation was unlikely.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rancorous>