

RANDEER

Meaning: RANDEER are large, deer-like mammals adapted to cold climates, known for their antlers and grazing habits, particularly on lichens during winter.

1. RANDEER are known for their impressive antlers, which they shed and regrow each year.
2. During the winter months, RANDEER are often seen grazing on lichens beneath the snow.
3. In some cultures, RANDEER are a symbol of resilience and adaptability in harsh climates.
4. The migration of RANDEER across the tundra is one of nature's most spectacular events.
5. Many children dream of riding in a sleigh pulled by magical RANDEER on Christmas Eve.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/randedeer>