

RANG

Meaning: RANG: the past tense of ring, meaning to emit a sound, typically from a bell or similar instrument.

1. The school bell rang loudly, signaling the end of the class.
2. As the clock struck midnight, the church bells rang in celebration of the New Year.
3. She rang the doorbell several times but received no answer.
4. The phone rang incessantly, interrupting his quiet evening.
5. In the distance, the sound of laughter rang out from the festival.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rang>