

RANKER

Meaning: A ranker is a person who achieves a high position or status, particularly in a competitive environment, such as academics or professional settings.

1. The new employee quickly became a ranker, impressing everyone with their dedication and skill.
2. In the competitive world of academia, being a ranker can significantly enhance one's career prospects.
3. After years of hard work, she finally achieved her dream of becoming a ranker in the national debate tournament.
4. He often referred to himself as a ranker in his field, having published numerous articles and papers.
5. Her performance in the marathon secured her position as a top ranker among all participants.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ranker>