

RANKNESS

Meaning: Rankness refers to the strong, unpleasant smell or taste associated with decay or fermentation.

1. The rankness of the cheese was overwhelming, leaving an aftertaste that lingered far too long.
2. After weeks of neglect, the rankness of the garden became unbearable, filled with the scent of decay.
3. He couldn't ignore the rankness in the air as they approached the stagnant pond.
4. The rankness of the old gym socks was a clear indication that they had seen better days.
5. Despite its rankness, the local delicacy was surprisingly popular among adventurous eaters.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rankness>