

RANTER

Meaning: RANTER: a person who speaks or writes in a loud, passionate, and often critical manner, especially about political or social issues.

1. The self-proclaimed ranter took to social media to express his frustrations about the current political climate.
2. At the town hall meeting, the ranter dominated the discussion with his loud and passionate opinions.
3. She often warned her friends not to engage with the ranter, as he could easily derail any conversation.
4. His reputation as a ranter overshadowed his ability to offer constructive feedback during team meetings.
5. The ranter's monologue was both entertaining and exhausting, leaving the audience unsure whether to applaud or flee.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ranter>