

RANTINGLY

Meaning: RANTINGLY: In a loud, passionate, and often angry manner, typically expressing strong opinions or complaints.

1. She paced back and forth, rantingly expressing her frustrations about the unfair treatment at work.
2. The politician stood in front of the crowd, rantingly condemning his opponents for their lack of integrity.
3. He was rantingly criticizing the government's policies, trying to rally support from his peers.
4. In the heat of the debate, she became rantingly passionate, her voice rising with every point she made.
5. After the game, the fans were rantingly discussing the referee's controversial decision that changed the outcome.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rantingly>