

RAPIERED

Meaning: RAPIERED (verb): To pierce or penetrate sharply and skillfully, often used metaphorically to describe precise and effective actions or expressions.

1. The artist's brush moved with a precision that rapiered the canvas with vibrant strokes.
2. In her debate, she rapiered her opponent's arguments, cutting through them with ease.
3. The novel's wit rapiered the reader, leaving them both amused and reflective.
4. His rapiered remarks during the meeting were both insightful and sharply critical.
5. With a rapiered gesture, she emphasized her point, captivating everyone in the room.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rapiered>