

RAPPORT

Meaning: Rapport is a harmonious relationship characterized by mutual understanding, trust, and respect between individuals.

1. Building rapport with clients is essential for long-term business relationships.
2. The teacher established a strong rapport with her students, making them feel comfortable and engaged.
3. Effective communication is key to developing rapport among team members in a workplace.
4. They quickly developed a rapport, sharing personal stories that deepened their friendship.
5. Having a good rapport with your manager can lead to better collaboration and support.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rapport>