

RAPT

Meaning: RAPT: deeply absorbed or fascinated; completely engrossed in something.

1. She listened to the speaker's words with rapt attention, hanging on every syllable.
2. The children were rapt as they gazed at the magician performing his astonishing tricks.
3. He was rapt in thought, oblivious to the chaos happening around him.
4. The audience sat in rapt silence as the orchestra began to play the haunting melody.
5. Her rapt expression revealed just how much she appreciated the beauty of the painting.
6. The audience was rapt as the speaker shared her inspiring story.
7. Children sat rapt in their seats, captivated by the magician's tricks.
8. He listened to the music with rapt attention, completely lost in the melody.
9. Her rapt gaze at the painting revealed her deep appreciation for art.
10. The students were rapt during the lecture, hanging on every word the professor spoke.
11. She listened to the speaker with rapt attention, hanging on every word.
12. The children were rapt with excitement as they watched the magic show unfold.
13. His rapt expression revealed how deeply he was engrossed in the novel.
14. The audience sat in rapt silence, captivated by the breathtaking performance.
15. As she shared her stories of adventure, her friends were rapt, eager for every detail.
16. She listened to the symphony, completely rapt by the beauty of the music.
17. The children sat rapt as the storyteller wove a magical tale.
18. His eyes were rapt with interest as he watched the documentary unfold.
19. The audience remained rapt during the mesmerizing performance, hanging on every movement.
20. She became rapt in thought, oblivious to the bustling world around her.