

RAPTURIZE

Meaning: To rapturize means to fill someone with intense joy or delight, often to the point of being entranced or mesmerized.

1. The magician's performance was so captivating that it seemed to rapturize the entire audience.
2. As the symphony reached its crescendo, the music rapturized the listeners, transporting them to another world.
3. Her passionate speech about environmental conservation rapturized everyone in the room, igniting a fervor for change.
4. The breathtaking sunset over the mountains rapturized the hikers, leaving them in stunned silence.
5. When he unveiled his latest painting, the beauty of the artwork rapturized art enthusiasts from across the gallery.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rapturize>