

RAPTUROUSLY

Meaning: RAPTUROUSLY: in a manner expressing intense joy or delight.

1. She smiled rapturously as she stepped onto the stage to a standing ovation.
2. The children laughed rapturously as they chased each other in the warm summer sun.
3. He listened rapturously to the symphony, completely lost in the music's beauty.
4. They embraced rapturously after being separated for so long, tears of joy in their eyes.
5. The audience reacted rapturously to the unexpected twist in the play's final act.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rapturously>