

RASHFUL

Meaning: Rashful (adjective): characterized by a tendency to act impulsively or without careful consideration, often leading to unexpected or startling outcomes.

1. She felt rashful as she stepped onto the stage for the first time.
2. His rashful comments often left everyone in the room stunned.
3. In a moment of haste, he made a rashful decision that he would later regret.
4. The rashful behavior of the teenager worried his parents greatly.
5. Despite his rashful nature, he was capable of great kindness when it mattered.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rashful>