

RASPY

Meaning: Raspy: having a harsh or grating quality, often describing a voice or sound that is rough and scratchy.

1. The singer's raspy voice added an emotional depth to the ballad.
2. After shouting all night, he woke up with a raspy throat.
3. Her raspy laughter echoed through the empty hallway, bringing a ghostly charm to the scene.
4. The old record crackled with a raspy sound that reminded him of his childhood.
5. He preferred his coffee black and strong, with a raspy texture that awakened his senses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/raspy>