

RAT

Meaning: A rat is a medium to large rodent of the genus Rattus, often found in urban areas and known for its adaptability and social behavior.

1. The scientist studied the behavior of the rat in various environments.
2. In the old attic, we found a rat nest hidden among the boxes.
3. He felt a rush of adrenaline when he spotted a rat scurrying across the street.
4. The rat was surprisingly clever, managing to navigate through the maze with ease.
5. Many people associate rats with disease, but they can also be quite intelligent pets.
6. The scientist studied the behavior of the lab rat to understand the effects of the new medication.
7. A rat scurried across the alley, disappearing into a pile of discarded boxes.
8. During the meeting, he felt like a rat trapped in a cage with all the pressure and expectations.
9. She adopted a pet rat, fascinated by its intelligence and playful nature.
10. The old warehouse was infested with rats, prompting the landlord to call an exterminator.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rat>