

RATIOCINATION

Meaning: Ratiocination is the process of logical reasoning or deductive thinking used to solve problems or draw conclusions.

1. Ratiocination is essential in solving complex mathematical problems.
2. The detective's ratiocination led him to uncover the truth hidden beneath layers of deception.
3. Her ratiocination process was methodical, allowing her to make sound decisions under pressure.
4. Engaging in ratiocination often reveals insights that intuition alone might overlook.
5. In philosophy, ratiocination plays a critical role in constructing logical arguments and theories.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ratiocination>