

RATTING

Meaning: Ratting refers to the act of betraying or informing on someone, especially a friend or associate, often resulting in negative repercussions.

1. Ratting can often lead to serious consequences for those who choose to betray their friends.
2. The detective had a knack for ratting out criminals in the most unexpected ways.
3. He felt a mix of guilt and relief after ratting on his former accomplices to the authorities.
4. Ratting in the world of espionage is a dangerous game that can jeopardize lives.
5. Many people view ratting as a necessary evil in the pursuit of justice and safety.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ratting>