

RATTLE-HEADED

Meaning: RATTLE-HEADED: characterized by restlessness or an inability to remain still, often accompanied by a lively or boisterous demeanor.

1. The rattle-headed child could not sit still for a moment, constantly fidgeting in his seat.
2. Her rattle-headed laughter filled the room, bringing smiles to everyone around her.
3. Despite his rattle-headed approach to life, he somehow managed to succeed in his career.
4. The rattle-headed parrot mimicked every sound it heard, becoming the center of attention.
5. In the midst of a serious discussion, his rattle-headed comments often lightened the mood.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rattle-headed>