

RAVELIN

Meaning: A ravelin is a defensive structure, typically a small fortification or outwork, built in front of a main fort or fortress to enhance its defenses.

1. The architect designed an impressive ravelin that enhanced the fortress's defenses.
2. During our tour of the ancient castle, we marveled at the beautifully preserved ravelin.
3. Soldiers stationed at the ravelin had a strategic view of the surrounding landscape.
4. The ravelin played a crucial role in the military tactics employed during the siege.
5. Artists often depict the ravelin in their illustrations of historical battles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ravelin>