

RAWBONED

Meaning: Rawboned refers to having a thin, bony, or gaunt appearance, often indicating a lack of flesh or fat.

1. The old man was rawboned and weathered, yet his spirit remained unbroken.
2. She preferred her steak rawboned, believing it enhanced the meat's natural flavor.
3. The rawboned horse raced ahead, its lean frame a testament to its endurance.
4. His rawboned appearance gave him a rugged charm that many found attractive.
5. Despite being rawboned, the athlete possessed surprising strength and agility on the field.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/rawboned>