

REACT

Meaning: React: to respond or behave in response to a stimulus or situation.

1. She didn't know how to react when she heard the surprising news.
2. Children often react differently to changes in their environment.
3. It's fascinating to observe how chemicals react when mixed together.
4. He tends to react impulsively, without thinking through the consequences.
5. The audience will likely react positively to the new performance.
6. Children often react differently to new experiences, showing either excitement or fear.
7. The scientist was eager to see how the chemical would react when exposed to heat.
8. It's important to remain calm and think clearly when others react emotionally in stressful situations.
9. Social media can cause people to react impulsively, often leading to misunderstandings.
10. In the play, the protagonist's decision caused his friends to react with both anger and support.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/react>