

READER

Meaning: A reader is a person who reads books or written material, often with enthusiasm or enjoyment.

1. The reader found the novel so captivating that she finished it in one sitting.
2. As an avid reader, he always has a stack of books waiting to be devoured.
3. The magazine has a diverse audience, appealing to every type of reader.
4. Her insightful comments showed that she was a thoughtful reader who engaged deeply with the text.
5. He considered himself a lifelong reader, always eager to explore new genres and authors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reader>