

READJUST

Meaning: Readjust: to change or modify something, such as expectations or strategies, in response to new information or circumstances.

1. After several weeks of training, she had to readjust her expectations for the competition.
2. The team decided to readjust their strategy after analyzing the initial results.
3. He needed to readjust the telescope to get a clearer view of the stars.
4. Due to the unexpected delay, we have to readjust our schedule for the day.
5. They learned to readjust their approach to communication in order to better connect with their audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/readjust>