REAGREE

Meaning: Reagree: to come to a mutual agreement again or reaffirm a previously established agreement.

1. After a long discussion, the committee decided to reagree on the original proposal to ensure clarity.

2. Following the feedback from both sides, they chose to reagree on their terms to foster better collaboration.

3. In light of new evidence, the team was able to reagree on their earlier conclusions with a fresh perspective.

4. The partners found it necessary to reagree on their objectives to align their strategies moving forward.

5. To resolve the misunderstanding, they opted to reagree on the timeline for project completion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reagree