

REALIST

Meaning: A realist is a person who accepts and deals with situations as they are, emphasizing practical and pragmatic solutions over idealistic or fanciful notions.

1. The realist in her approached the situation with a clear understanding of the challenges ahead.
2. As a realist, he preferred to focus on practical solutions rather than idealistic dreams.
3. The artist's work is often characterized by a realist style that captures everyday life with stunning detail.
4. In discussions about climate change, being a realist means acknowledging the urgency of the problem without losing hope.
5. Her realist perspective allowed her to navigate the complexities of the business world with ease.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/realist>