

REAPPLICATION

Meaning: Reapplication is the act of applying again for something, such as funding or admission, after a previous application has been denied or rejected.

1. The committee encouraged reapplication for those who were initially denied funding.
2. After several years in a different field, she decided that reapplication to the program was her best option.
3. The university's policy allows for reapplication after a one-year waiting period.
4. His enthusiasm for the project was evident during the reapplication process, showcasing his commitment.
5. Due to changes in eligibility criteria, many applicants considered reapplication to be worthwhile.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reapplication>