

REASONABLE

Meaning: Reasonable: fair and sensible; appropriate or moderate in amount or degree.

1. The price of the car is reasonable considering its excellent condition and low mileage.
2. After discussing the issue, we reached a reasonable compromise that satisfied both parties.
3. Her request for additional time to complete the project seemed entirely reasonable given the circumstances.
4. It's reasonable to expect that there will be some delays during the holiday season.
5. The committee found the proposed budget to be reasonable and approved it without any objections.
6. The price for the new laptop seemed reasonable compared to its features.
7. After reviewing the evidence, the jury found the defendant's explanation to be reasonable.
8. It's reasonable to expect some delays during the busy holiday season.
9. She offered a reasonable solution to the conflict that satisfied both parties.
10. His request for an extension was considered reasonable given the circumstances.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reasonable>