

REASONABLENESS

Meaning: Reasonableness refers to the quality of being fair, sensible, and logical in judgment or proposal.

1. The reasonableness of her proposal impressed the committee.
2. In discussions about policy change, the reasonableness of different viewpoints is essential.
3. Judges often assess the reasonableness of actions in determining legal outcomes.
4. His reasonableness in handling the conflict earned him respect from both sides.
5. The reasonableness of the request made it hard to refuse.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reasonableness>