

REASONING

Meaning: Reasoning is the process of thinking about something in a logical way to form conclusions, judgments, or inferences.

1. Effective reasoning is crucial for solving complex problems in mathematics.
2. Her reasoning behind the decision was based on thorough research and analysis.
3. The debate showcased the participants' exceptional reasoning skills and logical arguments.
4. He struggled to follow the reasoning presented in the philosophical discussion.
5. Clear reasoning can help bridge the gap between differing opinions during a disagreement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/reasoning>